Description

Stand Number: Hall A5, A5-300

The European Aviation Safety Agency has been successfully working towards simpler lighter and better rules for General Aviation. We have been able to change the regulatory landscape for the better, far exceeding all expectations. Come and find out more, visit us at our EASA stand at AERO in Friedrichshafen. You will find us in Hall A5, at stand A5-300 where you can meet EASA and NAA experts.

Our main events are:

Wednesday, 5 April 2017

Signature of the Charter on Safety of non-commercial GA flights with light aircraft
EASA stand, Hall A5, A5-300 at 11.30

Supporting innovation in CS-23 - EASA taking it to the next level.
Room Austria / Österreich (Conference Centre West) from 16:00 to 17:00.
Join EASA Certification Director Trevor Woods, and GAMA / industry leaders for the presentation of the new 'rewritten' aircraft certification rules for small aircraft, CS-23. Learn how this new path will impact manufacturers, operators, authorities and the wider general aviation community.
