EASA GA Roadmap Lunchtime Update - Moving towards implementation

Join us at our lunchtime event where EASA Certification Director Trevor Woods and the EASA GA Roadmap team will guide you through the major achievements and progress of the GA Roadmap in many domains, such as training organisations, pilot licensing, operations, certification and others.

This 2018 edition of AERO will also provide us with the opportunity to present a number of new safety promotion and communication initiatives to you, such as the multi-language cartoon Sunny Swift on better GA piloting, the EASA Safety Award, the EU-wide campaign on avoiding airspace infringement, the GA community site, or the EASA Safety Conference.

Small snacks and refreshments will be available.
