Description of event

On 24th October 2019, the European Commission adopted the Commission Implementing Regulation repealing and replacing Regulation (EU) No. 319/2014 on the fees and charges levied by the European Union Aviation Safety Agency.

This Implementing Regulation is expected to enter into force on 1st January 2020 (subject to its publication in the Official Journal of the European Union during the month December 2019) and incorporates fee adjustment for loss-making activities, a new flat fee structure for some of the Agency's tasks for which fees or charges are calculated on an hourly basis as well as adjustments of the base metric and/or thresholds for the determination of the applicable fees or charges.

The volume of regulatory provisions and tariffs affected is rather significant and, as a consequence, these changes will have to be considered by the Agency's stakeholders for their budgeting and business planning.

With the aim to reach out to industry and to ensure a smooth implementation, 14 information sessions of 1/2 day, taking place at different locations, are offered to applicants and holders of EASA design certificates and/or organisation approvals who want to have a better understanding of the new Regulation, its financial impact on their organisation, as well as the use of the new EASA Applicant Portal.

During these sessions, EASA will:

1. Explain the changes introduced to the current fees and charges regulation and the transitional provisions applicable to ongoing applications and existing approvals/certificates
2. Provide a live-demonstration on the use of the new Applicant Portal which will be released on 8th January 2020
3. Offer the opportunity for bilateral discussions on the expected financial / administrative impact to the specific organisation
