The screenshot shows the COCESNA website with a diagram overlaid on the right side. The diagram consists of three circles: a white circle labeled 'ACNA', a black circle labeled 'ICCAE', and a purple circle labeled 'ACSA' with a red border. These three circles are enclosed within a larger, light blue circle. A yellow arrow points from the 'ACSA' circle down to the word 'COCESNA' in red. The website header features the COCESNA logo and navigation links: 'CORPORATE', 'AERONAUTICAL', and 'AIM'. The main content area has a background image of a mountain peak above clouds. A white text box contains 'We are specialists' and a blue text box contains 'Aviation safety'. Below these, the text 'Known as the "Agency"' is displayed. The browser's address bar shows 'cocesna.org/acsa/'. The Windows taskbar at the bottom includes icons for various applications and the system clock showing 13:04 on 10/10/2017.
