

MS. SARAH DOHERTY

Professional Profile

Career to date

- EASA Programme Manager, Civil Aviation Authority, UK (Dec 2013 to present)
- Head of Strategy, Risk and Business Management for Aerodromes and Air Traffic Standards, Civil Aviation Authority, UK (Jul 2012-Nov 2013)
- Head of Aerodrome Policy, Civil Aviation Authority, UK (Mar 2010-Jun 2012)
- Head of Safety Data Unit, promoted to Head of Safety Data Department, Civil Aviation Authority, UK (Nov 2004-Mar 2010)
- Airworthiness Surveyor (Master Minimum Equipment Lists), Civil Aviation Authority, UK (Jun 1999-Oct 2004)
- Safety Analyst, Civil Aviation Authority, UK (Jul 1995- Sep May 1999)
- Student Design Engineer, Marshall Aerospace, Cambridge, UK (one year placement 1993-1994)
- Undergraduate Apprenticeship, British Aerospace, Hatfield, UK (two year apprenticeship, 1990-1992)

Education

- Fellow of the Royal Aeronautical Society, London, UK (2010)
- Chartered Engineer and Member of the Royal Aeronautical Society, London, UK (2004)
- Master of Science in Safety Management, Bournemouth University, UK (1999)
- Batchelor of Engineering in Aerospace Engineering, University of Hertfordshire, Hatfield, UK (1995)