

FAQs:

ATM/ANS Specifics, Air Traffic Management \(ATM\) / Air Navigation Services \(ANS\), Regulations

Question:

Who is the competent authority for ATM/ANS Pan-European services?

Answer:

According to Article 2 (Definitions) of Regulation (EU) 2017/373:

‘Pan-European service’ means an activity which is designed and established for users within most or all Member States and which may also extend beyond the airspace of the territory to which the Treaty applies.

The competent authority with regard to Pan-European services (e.g. DAT providers, the Network Manager, etc.) shall be the Agency (EASA) as defined in Article 4(1) of Regulation (EU) 2017/373.

Last updated:

26/03/2018

Link:

<https://www.easa.europa.eu/de/faq/45956>