

Mr Dr Stefan Bickert, Department of Aviation of the Federal Ministry for Digital and Transport in Germany.

Mr Dr Stefan Bickert works in the Department of Aviation of the Federal Ministry for Digital and Transport in Germany. He is responsible for the departments work on environmental and climate protection in aviation at international level as well as on European and domestic level.

Stefan is the ICAO CAEP Member for Germany. Before working for the Government of Germany, Stefan has worked at ICAO (2014-2018) in Environment, Air Transport Bureau.

He has started working in research at a university and a research centre focussing on sustainable transport and electric mobility. Stefan has studied Ecological Economics.