

Antoine Latif

antoine.latif@dassault-aviation.com

Antoine is currently in charge of environment and regulatory affairs of the Falcon Operational Support Department (DSOF) of Dassault Aviation based in Saint Cloud (France).

He holds a bachelor degree in European and International Law from Paris I Pantheon Sorbonne University (France) as well as a master's degree in Political Sciences from Paris Dauphine University (France).

Antoine began his career in the Public Affairs Department of the European Aircraft manufacturer Airbus. In 2017, he joined the Brussels representative office of Safran following European aviation topics.

He was also civil aeronautics advisor in the Economic Diplomacy Department of the Ministry for Europe and Foreign Affairs, supporting major export contracts and following the ICAO Affairs.

Before joining Dassault Aviation, he was responsible for Deep Tech, Electronics and Digital for the European and International Affairs Department of Air Liquide, world leader in gases, technologies and services for Industry and Health.