European Union Aviation Safety Agency

FAQ n.136189

FAQs:

EASA TCO authorisations — Restrictive measures Russia, EU restrictive measures against Russia

Question:

Are third-country operator (TCO) authorisations that are issued by EASA to airlines from Russia still valid?

Answer:

No, in application of the Sanctions Regulations, EASA has suspended all TCO authorisations for operators in respect of which Russia acts as the State of Operator.

Last updated:

20/01/2025

Link:

https://www.easa.europa.eu/en/faq/136189