Description

The European Union Aviation Safety Agency (EASA) and the Croatian Civil Aviation Agency are pleased to invite you to the 3rd EASA Flight Time Limitations (FTL) / Fatigue Risk Management (FRM) Conference, taking place on 4 – 5 March 2026 in Split, Croatia.

This year's conference will bring together regulators, operators, safety leaders, researchers, and crew representatives to discuss the latest developments, challenges, and innovations in FTL and FRM. Over two days, participants will explore operational, scientific, and human-factors perspectives shaping the future of fatigue management in European aviation.
