FAQ n.19072

FAQs:

Examination, Part-147, Continuing Airworthiness, Regulations

Question:

Can an examination be limited to some modules only, or one module only or part of a module only?

Answer:

As mentioned in the previous question, for some particular cases, the basic training need to be conducted and the relevant examination to be passed on some modules only or one module or part of a module (this is typically the case where the holder of a licence applies for removing some limitations mentioned in his/her licence).

However, the Part-147 organisation should be capable of conducting the full course relative to the (sub)category sought, so that they can run the examination.
