Question:

A.9 - How much do I have to pay if I apply for the re-issuance of certificates and documents?

Answer:

One hour will be charged for re-issuance of documents

- without technical involvement, on request of the applicant (e.g. to replace lost originals)
- on request of the applicant in the context of technical changes which do not require a project involvement of the Agency (e.g. amended TCs following minor changes by TC holder DOAs)
- to reflect editorial changes (e.g. change of company name)
- for grandfathered documents to be reissued in the EASA format, without technical involvement
