European Union Aviation Safety Agency

FAQ n.44359

FAQs:

Organisational approvals, ETSO authorisations

Question:

Can an ETSO Authorisation Holder task different production organisations for the production of different articles covered by different ETSO Authorisations?

Answer:

Yes, an ETSO Authorisation Holder can task different production organisations for the production of different articles covered by different ETSO Authorisations, as long as for each ETSO Authorisation only one production organisation is tasked.
