Description

The 2013 edition of the Rotorcraft Symposium is approaching. The seventh EASA Rotorcraft Symposium is scheduled to be held on 4th and 5th December 2013. It is the European forum for the rotary wing community where Authorities, Industry, Operators, Pilots, constructively discuss achievements and concerns in order to set the course for the future of rotorcraft airworthiness for the promotion of Aviation Safety.

Thank you to all speakers and conference delegates for participating in the 7th EASA Rotorcraft Symposium. You helped us making the event a successful networking opportunity for the rotary wing community. We look forward to meeting you again here in Cologne on 3 and 4 December 2014 for the 8th Rotorcraft Symposium.
