Description

The European Union Aviation Safety Agency (EASA) and the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) are joining forces to advance aviation safety through global leadership at the 2024 International Aviation Safety Conference in Washington, D.C., June 11-13.

This year's three-day conference will gather senior aviation professionals from regulators, manufacturers, airlines and associations from all over the world to discuss global aviation safety topics from the perspective of both, the regulators and industry.
