Employment opportunities offered at EASA

What is a Temporary Agent?

Answer

Temporary Agent posts are classified, according to the nature and importance of the duties into two function groups: an administrators' function group (hereinafter 'AD') and an assistants' function group (hereinafter 'AST').

- The Administrators' function group (AD) comprises twelve grades from AD 5 to AD 16, corresponding to administrative, technical, advisory, linguistic and scientific duties;
- Assistants' function group (AST) comprises eleven grades from AST 1 to AST 11, corresponding to executive, technical and clerical duties.

The initial duration of a Temporary Agent contract is usually 5 years with the possibility of renewal for an indefinite period.

What is a Contract Agent?

Answer

Contract Agent posts are classified, according to the nature and importance of the duties, into four function groups:

- Function group I (grades 1 to 3) corresponds to administrative support service tasks;
- Function group II (grades 4 to 7) corresponds to secretarial and office management tasks;
- Function group III (grades 8 to 12) corresponds to executive, drafting and accountancy tasks;

- Function group IV (grades 13 to 18) corresponds to administrative, scientific, advisory, and linguistic tasks.

The initial duration of a Contract Agent contract is usually 3 years with the possibility of renewal for a definite period. It may be renewed not more than once for a fixed period of not more than five years. Any further renewal shall be for an indefinite period. In specific cases the individual contract duration may be limited to the length of the specific project the candidate will undertake.

Does EASA engage with temporary employment agencies?

Answer

From time to time, EASA is assisted by external providers (i.e. interim providers).

In particular, for secretarial/administrative tasks, the Agency may use interim staff for short periods of time to cover for short- or long-term absences of staff or to implement projects of a limited duration.

Interim assignments may have a duration of up to 9 months and may be extended for a maximum period of another 9 months in exceptional cases.

If you want to know more about the interim opportunities at EASA, please send us an email at [recruit \[at\] easa.europa.eu](mailto:recruit@easa.europa.eu) ([recruit\[at\]easa\[dot\]europa\[dot\]eu](mailto:recruit[at]easa[dot]europa[dot]eu)).

I have a degree from a country that is not a Member State of the European Union nor an EASA Member State. Am I eligible for a vacancy advertised by the Agency?

Answer

If your application is found eligible on the basis of diploma(s) obtained outside these countries, we might ask you to provide proof of accreditation by one of the European Union Member States. This applies also to diplomas obtained in the UK after 31 December 2020. Failure to provide such accreditation will result in your application being disqualified from the selection procedure. For further information on diploma accreditation, please visit ENIC-NARIC - gateway to recognition of qualifications.

My degree/diploma will not be awarded until after the closing date for applications. May I apply?

Answer

You must fulfill all eligibility requirements of the vacancy notice by the closing date for your application to be assessed. Therefore, if a specific degree is required (e.g. secondary or post-secondary education), this must have been awarded by the closing date. Qualifications gained after that date cannot be taken into consideration.

How does the assessment of applications look like?

Answer

Get prepared for your assessments and read the detailed information about our Selection process \(europa.eu\).

- At EASA the selection procedures for Temporary Agents and Contract Agents are carried out in line with the respective implementing rules on the engagement and use of Temporary and Contract Agents.
- On the basis of your responses to the pre-screening questions we will first check whether you are an eligible candidate.
- A nominated Selection Board will then go through the eligible applications and decide which candidates to shortlist for the next stage(s) of the selection process. The Selection Board assesses applications against the selection criteria of the vacancy, using solely the information provided in the application form. The competences and skills defined in the vacancy are critical to perform the job, but candidates who do not meet all of them will not automatically be excluded. The Selection Board may therefore accept candidates that do not fulfil all the criteria listed. Based on a pre-defined methodology, the Selection Board shortlists the most suitable candidates for the next stage.
- To better identify the most suitable candidates to be invited to the last step of the process, the Selection Board may invite you to complete one or more pre-selection exercises.
- At the last step of the process you will be interviewed by the Selection Board, and you may be invited to sit computer-based test(s) related to the skills listed in the vacancy notice. Note that if your mother tongue is English, you will be required to evidence satisfactory knowledge of a second EU language (at least level B2) before you are invited to the final step.

I am invited for an interview at EASA. How can I prepare myself?

Answer

It is advisable to use the vacancy notice of the respective position as a basis of your preparation. The interview questions and the written tests aim at assessing the main competencies needed to successfully perform the duties of the position you have applied for. In addition, get prepared for your assessments and read the detailed information about our Selection process \(europa.eu\).

Can I apply for two vacancies at the same time?

Answer

Vacancies advertised by EASA are treated as separate selection procedures and therefore, candidates are welcome to submit their application to any vacancy of their interest for which they satisfy the eligibility criteria.

Last updated:

20/02/2020

Link:

<https://www.easa.europa.eu/hr/faq/110296>

When may I expect an invitation for a pre-selection assessment or interview?

Answer

The time taken to invite shortlisted applicants for the next step depends on the number of applications received for a particular vacancy notice. Please also bear in mind that we often publish a considerable number of vacancies simultaneously and that each application undergoes a detailed evaluation. Therefore, it may take up to 8 weeks from the closing date of the vacancy notice until invitations are sent out.

Last updated:

14/03/2023

Link:

<https://www.easa.europa.eu/hr/faq/19252>

When and where do the interviews and written tests take place?

Answer

The invitations to the shortlisted candidates are sent once the evaluation of applications is completed (this may take up to two months after closure of the vacancy notice). Pre-selection exercises, online tests and interviews with the Selection Board usually take place remotely.
