Question:

Is there any further supportive material that could be useful when determining the number of required RFFS personnel?

Answer:

Further guidance or considerations to determine the number of required RFFS personnel may be found in the following sources:

- ACI World: Managing Rescue and Firefighting Services at Airports — Handbook
- ICAO: Airport Services Manual, Part 1 — Rescue and Firefighting \(Doc 9137\)
- adapted procedures from structural firefighting or civil defense;
- contact or consultation with members of the working group for knowledge exchange; and
- any other international or national guidance material on the subject matter.
