European Union Aviation Safety Agency

FAQ n.19469

FAQs:

Miscellaneous, ETSO authorisations

Question:

What is the EASA position on PMA (Parts Manufacturer Approval) approvals?

Answer:

EASA has documented how an approval can be issued by the Agency to an organisation under the regulatory oversight of the FAA for a part designed under their PMA system. Refer to EASA policy in ED Decision 2007/003/C.
