

Alessio Quaranta, ENAC Director General

Alessio Quaranta was born in Rome in 1965. He is married with two sons. Graduated in Law, he has a Postgraduate Specialization Degree in Public Administration and has attended several further training courses on legal areas.

He has been confirmed in his duty of ENAC Director General on 26th June 2019. Before being appointed as Director General, he held a number of executive positions in ENAC, including the following: Responsible for Corruption Prevention (2013/2014); Director of Economic Regulation (2008/2010); Director of the President Bureau (2005/2008); Director of Human Resources (2004/2005), Head of International Relations (2001/2005); Legal and Economic Advisor to the President (2001/2003).

He is holding the following positions in the main International organizations of the aviation filed: President of EATEO (European Association of Aviation Training and Education Organisations); Vice President of ECAC (European Civil Aviation Conference); Focal Point for Facilitation and Security in the Coordinating Committee of ECAC; President of JAA-TO (Joint Aviation Authorities - Training Organization); National Accountable Executive for the International Civil Aviation Organisation State Safety Program; Member of the Provisional Council and the President Bureau of EUROCONTROL and Alternate Member of the Italian Minister of Infrastructures and Transports in the Permanent Commission of the Agency; Member of the Management Board of EASA (European Aviation Safety Agency); Head of the Italian Delegation at the International Civil Aviation Organization General Assembly, including the last ICAO 40th Assembly (Montreal, 24 September – 4 October 2019); Head of the Italian Delegation at high-level meetings, international negotiations and bilateral negotiations for the air traffic agreements signed by Italy; he participates in the meetings of the Director Generals of Civil Aviation of the European Civil Aviation Conference and the European Union.

He is member of the Scientific Committee of a number of journals, author of articles and publications and speaker at several conferences on national and international air transport issues.

March 2020