

FAQ n.19593

FAQs:

Applicability, Third Country Operators (TCO), Regulations

Question:

Are there any territories related to the EU to which a third country operator can fly without holding a TCO authorisation?

Answer:

A third country operator can fly to the following territories without holding a TCO authorisation:

- Greenland and Faroe Islands
- French Polynesia
- French Southern & Antarctic Territories
- New Caledonia and Dependencies
- Wallis and Futuna Islands
- Saint Pierre and Miquelon
- Aruba
- Bonaire
- Curação
- Saba
- Saint-Barthélemy
- Saint Eustatius
- Sint Maarten (part of the island that forms part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands)

Last updated:

14/03/2023

Link:

https://www.easa.europa.eu/en/faq/19593